

Psychological excursion „The faces of Vilnius“

Guide- Julius Kvedaruskas

Vilnius has many faces. Since the beginning the city was inhabited by the balts, slavs, germans. Later, the jews, italians, karaims, tatars made a big part of the population. Todays' Vilnius also has many faces.

During the excursion you shall learn about the different minorities who lived in Vilnius, their cultures, cuisines, religions. We shall breath is spirit of the city that was supposed to one of the most tolerant in Europe.

While wondering through the narrow streets and backyards of Vilnius we shall also be able to ask ourselves- how do I manage to live with someone of a differnet faith, values or lifestyle? How do I manage to make my internal different faces to live together?

You will be personally touched by the excursion: you shall receive unexpected letters from unexpected personalities of difeerent cultures, of different times. We shall travel not only in the area, but also in time and history.

Duration- 4 hours. Price- 20 eur./person. Min 2 persons. A cup of tea/coffee and a snack is included in price.
